Advanced Output Management for Oracle E-Business Suite

Print Anywhere...

Unitask Output Director for the Oracle E-Business Suite is the most advanced and cost-effective output solution available in the world today. Designed to address the timely and expensive demands organizations face when setting up, maintaining and supporting printers in the Oracle E-Business Suite, Unitask Output Director allows users to print anywhere, anytime, on any printer.

Do More...

Introducing simplicity for the complex world of Oracle printing. Unitask Output Director eliminates printing configuration challenges with transparent, Plug-n-Play capabilities allowing you to do more than you ever imagined, all while delivering an ROI measured in months – not years. Unitask gives you freedom to do more!

- Centralized—Command and control for all of your output.
- Virtualized printing—Print to any printer, anywhere, anytime.
- Saves Money—Eliminates redundant purchases for Oracle specific printers.
- Eliminates Burden—Reduces printer support requirements.
- Optimize Project Schedules—Never configure a printer again!
- Empower Users—Point and click control for viewing & emailing output.
- Transparency—A seamless integration without changing the way users work.
- Enhanced Security—Configure sensitive output to specific printers.

Pay Less...

At Unitask, it's all about U! We provide a complete Output Management strategy that is economical and ensures your success. Our only focus is Oracle EBS, which means we've solved the most common print and output management problems, while finding ways to offer you unmatched capabilities through service, support, technology and value.

So whether the need is for solutions effecting one printer or the entire enterprise, in-house or out of the country, Output Director Enterprise by Unitask is an effective solution designed to fit the immediate, the long term and the strategic. After all, what good is a solution if you can't afford to use it?

Simplify. Automate. Control. Achieve.

“Unitask’s product allowed us to send to whichever printer we desired, saving us not only time and maintenance efforts, it saved us a lot of money.”
